American Military University (AMU) is a fully online university which is regionally accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. AMU students are active working adults in the military, public safety and national security sectors, and beyond. Founded to provide relevant and affordable education to the military, AMU today serves a variety of students seeking liberal arts and professional studies degrees and we place special program emphasis on programs in Homeland Security, National Security, Intelligence and Emergency Disaster Management.

ONLINE DEGREE PROGRAMS

At AMU, you can progress through your degree path faster. First, courses start monthly, because we know your personal commitments don't always align with a traditional semester schedule. Second, we offer 8 and 16-week sessions for many classes, so you have the option to take more intense, 8-week courses when your schedule allows.

AFFORDABILITY

Despite significant tuition rate hikes commonly found throughout the United States, AMU has a modest tuition level for our undergraduate and graduate courses. AMU has also established a book grant so that undergraduate students do not have to purchase their own books or pay for shipping costs, regardless of where they are located. This represents a huge savings for our students. The grant is available to all AMU undergraduate students throughout their degree program, providing the student maintains a 2.0 grade point average.

AMU offers over 100 degree programs and certificates. The following courses are just a few of the degree programs that maybe of interest to anyone in the Public Safety profession.

100% On-line Degrees

Bachelor of Science in Applied Studies

(Consists of courses in Business Management, Sociology, and Psychology with a minor in Communication)

Master of Science Degree in Public Administration (MPA) Master of Business Administration (MBA)

PROGRAMS CAN BE COMPLETED ENTIRELY ON-LINE OR CAN BE MIXED IN A COMBINATION OF GROUND-BASED AND ON-LINE FORMATS.

GOALS OF THE APPLIED STUDIES PROGRAM INCLUDE:

- Provide a bridge between technical experience and the broader knowledge from management theory and liberal arts offers studies that assist students in occupational leadership in their respective field;
- Provide key transferable skills for the workplace in areas of critical reasoning, problem solving, and clear communication;
- Offers a degree program that combines quality and efficiency through flexible delivery, convenient scheduling, and continuous faculty advising;
- Up to 18 units of lower division technical course work may be integrated as part of the degree.

The Master of Public Administration (MPA) program is designed to provide a quality graduate professional education for individuals entering or currently employed in public service and non-profit professions. This asynchronous learning model reproduces the basic elements of a classroom teaching experience outside of the classroom. As such, the MPA Online program incorporates the traditional classroom components of a teaching faculty member, course materials, and the shared experiences of a cohort group of classmates.

The MPA degree provides graduates with the educational background and professional competencies needed to secure administrative or managerial positions in a variety of public sector and non-profit organizations or with preparation for doctoral study and careers in teaching and research.

California State University at Dominguez Hills is regionally accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY

In partnership with LASD University
Presents a

Master of Arts in Criminal Justice

The Master of Arts program in Criminal Justice prepares students for administrative, research, and teaching positions. It is primarily designed to foster a learning community of criminal justice professionals who will use cutting edge knowledge within law enforcement, correctional and legal arenas. Program graduates will also be prepared for admission to doctoral programs in crime and deviance, and for promotions within existing law enforcement, correctional and legal institutions.

The Master of Arts program in Criminal Justice is committed to the interdisciplinary study of criminal behavior and society's response to it. The program welcomes students who work within a criminal justice profession, as well as those who have had little or no previous exposure to the criminal justice system. Chapman University is regionally accredited through the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

Master of Science in Criminal Justice

Columbia College was founded in 1851 in Columbia, Missouri. It is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and is a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. The College has more than 35 years of experience working with adult students. Columbia College has more than 30 campuses located throughout the United States and Cuba. Columbia College began an online delivery system of its academic programs in 2000 that has grown to over 700 course sections each 8 weeks.

Columbia College offers degree programs in 8-week sessions which begin five times a year. Students may enroll in two courses during an 8-week session, considered full-time; or take a single course at a time during a session. Sessions begin in August, October, January, March and June. Students can start and stop their academic program as their schedule allows.

Credit is accepted in transfer from other accredited colleges and universities, DANTES, CLEP, Military training, police academy training, and other sources. There are two additional programs available to members of Law Enforcement which allow for credit to be awarded based on training received from attendance at training academies for police or corrections officers. The Partners in Law Enforcement (PiLE) program grants 24 credit hours of course equivalency to students who meet the minimum of 400 hours of police academy and are either currently working in the law enforcement field or who have completed the academy in the past five years or less. Partners in Corrections (PiC) grants 24 semester hours of course equivalency to students who have completed a minimum 275 hours basic training academy and are current in the field or who have completed it in the past five years.

The admissions fee is waived for LASDU employees. The tuition rate at Columbia College is affordable without additional discounts. The tuition for the 2010-2011 academic year for undergraduate online courses is $225.00 per credit hour ($675 per course) and $330.00 per credit hour ($990 per course) for graduate courses. There is also federal financial aid available for those who meet requirements for aid.

Bachelor of General Studies

This degree is designed by the student and academic advisor and integrates coursework from across the curriculum. It is intended for the student who desires a liberal arts and sciences bachelor's degree from Columbia College but for whom there is not an appropriate major. Students can build the Bachelor of General Studies around minors if desired.

Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science in Business Administration

The Bachelor's degrees in Business Administration (BA and BS) serve students from a variety of backgrounds. The core curriculum reflects the recommendations of the Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP). Students may earn a Bachelor of Arts or a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. In addition, students may elect majors in accounting, financial services, human resource management, international business, management or marketing. A principle focus of the program is to prepare students for entry-level positions and for advancement in various occupations and professions.

Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice Administration

The Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice Administration degree is designed to permit the pursuit of different professional career goals while integrating the general study of criminal justice and law with other relevant disciplines. A degree in criminal justice administration prepares students for entry-level employment in the field, for promotion and leadership roles, and for graduate study. The program provides an excellent academic foundation for students planning to go on to graduate studies or law school.

Master of Business Administration

The Master of Business Administration (MBA) offers a balance of theory and practice. The mission of the MBA program is to prepare working adults in the early stages of their careers in small or mid-sized organizations with the knowledge, skills, and personal characteristics that will enhance performance in their present occupation, and prepare them for advancement to upper-level management in the future. The MBA program enhances career opportunities in the management of business firms or other formally organized enterprises.

Master of Science In Criminal Justice

The Master of Science in Criminal Justice (MSCJ) degree is designed primarily for practitioners in the field of criminal justice interested in developing and/or enhancing administrative skills. The program is also designed to meet the analytical and theoretical needs of students who will continue with doctoral or law studies. The degree emphasizes four foundational areas; trends in criminal justice, policy development and analysis, research design and ethics in criminal justice.

Master of Public Administration for Law Enforcement – 100% online (MPA)

Founded in 1929, Marist College is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, Commission on Higher Education, and recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. For the sixteenth year in a row, Marist College is ranked in the top tier of colleges and universities in the northern United States in the latest edition of the annual U.S. News & World Report America's Best Colleges 2010 guide. Marist was ranked 15th out of 172 colleges and universities in the northern United States that offer a full range of undergraduate and master's degree programs. The Princeton Review named Marist one of the best 371 colleges in the country and Forbes and The Princeton Review call Marist one of the "25 most connected campuses" in America. The School is also listed as one of the top 290 business schools in the world by The Princeton Review.

SPECIAL PRICING FOR LASD UNIVERSITY

Marist recognizes the importance of providing affordable educational opportunities. LASD sworn and civilian employees, LASDU partners, along with their families, will receive the following benefits:

LASD University students will have an opportunity to enroll in an online Master of Public Administration (MPA) flexible cohort degree program with other law enforcement professionals featuring tuition pricing of $333 per credit

The discounted tuition rate also applies to family members of LASD University students.

Application fees will be waived for all employees applying to the online MPA

The MPA program is comprised of 39-42 credits of graduate coursework (13-14 courses). Fall and Spring courses are eight weeks in length and summer courses are six weeks. Semester breaks are included. The entire graduate degree program can be completed in just over two years.

TUITION AND ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Tuition for LASD University students in the MPA flexible cohort degree program will be fixed at $333 per credit / $999 per course. This represents a savings of over 50% from their standard tuition of $695 per credit / $2,185 per course and results in a total tuition cost of approximately $13,000. Students participating through the LASD academic partnership will not qualify for additional scholarship assistance but may be eligible for need-based financial aid.

Bachelor of Science Degree in

WORKFORCE EDUCATION & DEVELOPMENT

Southern Illinois University, Carbondale (SIUC) has offered a regionally accredited Bachelor of Science Degree in Southern California for over thirty years. SIU grants 44 semester hours of FREE transfer credit for law enforcement academies, P.O.S.T., other accredited Administration of Justice courses, and for corresponding work experience. SIU is accredited through the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Enrollment with SIU is available to any adult who has completed 14 semester hours of college credit for their occupational training and 2.5 years of corresponding work experience.

At our Riverside, CA location we offer a combination of six weekend classroom courses and six 'online' Independent Study courses. More specifically, we offer the twelve courses that are the 'major' or senior level courses in the degree. These courses are designed to be completed in one year, and at the end of the year students have earned 36 semester hours of credit. The six weekend courses are taught on an alternating weekend format – three weekends, per course, in two months. In the same two month timeframe students complete one online course. Class hours are 8 AM – 3 PM Saturday and Sunday.

SIU does not require an Associates Degree to enroll in our 'major' senior level courses.

UNION INSTITUTE AND UNIVERSITY

In partnership with LASD University

Presents a

Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice Management

Or

Bachelor of Science in Public Administration

Union Institute and University is a regionally accredited (North Central Association of Colleges and Schools) private university founded in 1964. Union Institute and University offers both tutorial (distance learning) and on ground models of instruction. Each student is assigned a subject matter expert as their faculty advisor. Faculty is comprised of professors with extensive real world experience. Programs are created and taught by experienced police professionals. Students can enter the program every 8 weeks.

ACCELERATED FORMAT

Students entering the 8 week on ground cohort only meet 5 times over the 8 week period.

DISTANCE LEARNING GENERAL EDUCATION CREDITS

If students meet the prerequisites for admission, students may complete college credit courses for English, Math, Humanities, Natural and Social Sciences taken in a distance and/or online learning format. Students have the option of testing via the College Level Examination Program (CLEP). If a passing score is achieved, they may receive credit for the appropriate courses with no other work required.

WORK EXPERIENCE CREDITS

If students meet the prerequisites, Union Institute and University may award college units toward the completion of a degree based on work experience. For example, a Basic POST Certificate could count as up to 32 units in either a major or elective category. Intermediate and Advanced POST Certified training may make students eligible for up to an additional 30 units. A maximum of 90 units may be transferable to a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice Management or a Bachelor of Science in Public Administration.

UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI

In partnership with LASD University

Presents a

Master of Science Degree in Criminal Justice

The University of Cincinnati ranks 3rd in Criminology and Criminal Justice in the U.S. News and World Report's America's Best Graduate Schools. Classes are taught in a distance learning format.

Program Overview

The Master of Science degree program in Criminal Justice is designed to meet the needs of students who are preparing for careers in criminal justice as well as those planning doctoral study. Master's training focuses on development of knowledge and skills in the areas of management, administration, theory, and research. The program is located at the nexus of theory and practice to ensure that students are grounded in criminal justice theory, understand the practical implications of theory, and have the ability to perform rudimentary analysis of both theory and practice. The Master of Science program is open to pre-service and in-service applicants, on a part-time basis. The program can be completed full-time in just over one year.

The University of Cincinnati has partnered with LASDU to offer all employees enrolled in the 2-year, online Master of Science in Criminal Justice a $250 book credit for every quarter the student is satisfactorily enrolled in the program. In order to receive the stipend each term, students must be currently employed with the LASD and meet the minimum academic requirements established by the University of Cincinnati Division of Criminal Justice.
